 and to
 His Catholic Church
 and its teachings.

Pastor's Corner

My dear family,

A blessed celebration
 of the Octave Sunday of Easter, the
 Sunday of Divine Mercy.

Devotion to the mercy of God is of course as old as the Bible itself, but the modern devotion as we know it is relatively recent, based upon the revelations of Lord gave to St. Faustina, the Polish nun who lived in the first part of the 20th century. Indeed, it was only when John Paul II became Pope that the devotion really became known to the wide public - from that time the growth of the devotion as been phenomenal. In our age of such cruelty and hatred, the message of Divine Mercy is needed more than ever! Many thanks to all the people who helped to pray the Novena of Divine Mercy publicly in our parish.

A blessed week,
 Msgr. Doug Raun

PERPETUAL ADORATION

"We can tell when a soul has received the Sacrament of the Eucharist worthily. It is so flooded with love, so pervaded and changed, that we recognize it no longer in its words and actions. It is humble, gentle, mortified, charitable, and modest, and at peace with everyone. It is a soul capable of the greatest sacrifices; in fact, it is unrecognizable." St. John Vianney Eucharistic Meditations

The following is a list of hours where we need extra help in the adoration chapel. These hours are occupied by one person at present, but we want to secure them with two. Also, if you visit the chapel, PLEASE sign in. If you don't and the sign in sheet shows nothing for a certain hour, we have no choice but to think that Jesus was left alone. Thank you!

Culture of Life Corner

We must not forget the events of last week: Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. We must recognize Our Lord, how " He interpreted to them what referred to Him in all the scriptures" (Luke 24:27). Equally, we must recognize the dignity of every human person. " God created man in His image" (Genesis 1:27). " A person is a person no matter how small," declared by no other than Dr. Suss: read in books, printed on T-Shirts, and seen on Billboards. And as the two who " were going to a village," and " at the breaking of the bread...their eyes were opened and they recognized him" (Lk.24:31), so too, all of us who are going about our own village (world) could easily apply that to the moment when we should recognize and view human life. At what point are our eyes opened to recognize the dignity and sacredness of human life? " One cannot be a faithful follower of Jesus and believe abortion is a morally acceptable course of action. Only God gives life and only God can take it away." (Hap Corbett). Submitted by Charles Griego

"A wedding is a day, a Marriage is a lifetime," is the message that Catholic Engaged Encounter weekend presents to the engaged couples attending their weekend retreat. For more information, call 352-1177 or 831-8117 in Albuquerque.

 Where Faith & Knowledge Meet
 Sr. Anne Louise Abascal, Principal 892-3221

The mission entrusted to us as teachers of the faith consists in recalling, in the words of the Apostle of the Gentiles, that our Savior "desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:4). This, and nothing else, is the purpose of the Church: the salvation of individual souls.

April 24 – 26 “Dancing with Your Shadow”

Presented by Kim Nataraja

Kim has been a contemplative since her youth and has been associated with The World Community for Christian Meditation for several years. She is an Ignatian trained Spiritual Director and is an experienced retreat leader. Kim’s particular interests are those inspiring figures from the Christian Spiritual Tradition, who guide us in the contemplative life, and the ways in which psychological insights can aid our progress. On the latter topic she has written a book entitled “Dancing with Your Shadow.”

During this retreat Kim will guide us in learning how to identify and embrace our shadow. “Dancing with Your Shadow” is about accepting all aspects of our being with joy and fearless love. This spiritual path is a journey of integration of Mind and Heart, of the ‘ego’ – our surface self – and the deeper ‘self’, the center of our whole being and the link with the Source of All. This Spiritual Path is about bringing these complementary aspects of our being together, integrating into a harmonious, cooperative whole, so that we may have “life, life in all its fullness.” As we recover and integrate all the lost, suppressed facets of ourselves we are ‘Dancing with our Shadow.’ Please join with us in this weekend of “Dance.”
