

ST. THOMAS AQUINAS PARISH

June 20th, 2010

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

We live a dynamic orthodoxy that is a spirit-filled faithfulness to Jesus Christ and His Gospel and to His Catholic Church and her teachings.

PASTORS CORNER

My dear family,

Next weekend will be the last Sunday that Fr. De Palma will be with us, before becoming the new pastor of San Ysidro in Corrales. After all the Masses next weekend we will have a reception in the hall for you to visit with Fr. De Palma and thank him for all the wonderful work he has done in our parish. I encourage everyone to attend.

This Saturday are the ordinations to the sacred priesthood at the Cathedral in Santa Fe. Please keep in your prayers the ordinandi: Deacons John Trambley, June Ramos, and Fernando Saenz.

One of the three of them will be our new assistant here at St. Thomas. Who? You have to attend the ordinations to find out!

We welcome Seminarian Andrew Henrick to our parish. Andrew, a student at the North American College in Rome, will be with us the month of July, working with religious education and general parish duties.

Seminarian Jim Larkin, who has been with us these past two months, will be going with Fr. De Palma to Corrales.

The big feast day this week is Thursday, June 24th - the Nativity of St. John the Baptist. The birth of the Last of the Prophets is important because it heralded the coming of his Divine Cousin, Jesus Christ. Therefore, the Church has always celebrated his birth with great solemnity. The Feast of the Birth of St. John takes place on the longest day of the year because of the words he spoke "I must decrease, He (Jesus) must increase" - even as the daylight now decreases until the Birth of our Lord in December.

As of Tuesday, I will be gone for ten days of summer vacation. See you all when I return July 1st.

A blessed week!

Msgr. Raun

ADORATION

Thanks to all that signed up for a holy hour this past week. Thanks also to Msgr. Raun and Fr. Mukasa for their beautiful appeals for adorers. They obviously touched many hearts. If you have not been called about the hour for which you signed up, please be patient as some of our coordinators were out of town this past week. They will be contacting you soon. You may also call my cell - 806/676-0333 if I can be of any help to you.

Please be mindful - everyone- Jesus is never to be left alone. Your commitment as an adorer whether you are a permanent adorer or a visitor, is to keep watch over the Blessed Sacrament. The chapel is never to be empty. Do not assume that your hour is covered if you cannot be there. You must contact your Division Coordinator or find someone yourself to cover your hour. Sometimes, myself or the coordinators are hard to reach, we understand that. But, keep in mind, that if you invite someone new to take your place every once in a while, you are providing a huge ministry for the church. You are also placing that person in the presence of Jesus perhaps at a time when they need it most.

Once again, thank all of you so much.

Gay Bitonel, Head Coordinator

CULTURE OF LIFE CORNER

Have you ever watched a new father in the Maternity Ward? Passing out cigars used to be the case! Notice the proud father at his son's baseball game...or at his daughter's Wedding! Sadly, fathers do hurt learning that their child has been aborted! The outward silence must be very difficult. And that includes bidding farewell to any of their children at the moment of their deathbed! Honor your Father Today, knowing that didn't happen to you. Pray for those who suffer. When they don't receive outward respect, they know the good they have done and need to be forgiven for their shortcomings. " If my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land" (Chronicles 7:14). Submitted by Charles Griego
